ONE Good Deed Fund Grant Application

Thanks for your interest in applying for funding from the ONE Good Deed Fund. We're looking forward to reading about your idea for a good deed! Please note before you start that all recipients (that's the person who will be the recipient of the good deed, not the person applying for funding) must live in Burlington, VT's Old North End neighborhood, that only individuals can apply (nonprofits and other organizations are not eligible for funding), that all good deeds must be completed within a year of notification of funding, and that funding will not be issued directly to the applicant – it will be issued to the vendor(s) who are selling the items or services needed to complete the good deed.

Applications are accepted at any time. Please email this completed application to info@onegooddeedfund.org or mail it to: ONE Good Deed Fund, Attn: Laura Hale, 115 N Champlain St, Burlington VT 05401.

Good Deed Description:

1) What is the good deed you'd like to do? (Continue on the back of this page or onto the next page if needed)

2) Why is this good deed important?

3) What is the amount you are requesting? (maximum funding request is $100): $ _____

4) How will this money be used? Note that funding will be paid to vendors who provide the goods and services needed to complete the good deed, not directly to you, so please tell us what you'll need to buy and how much you think it will cost.

5) When will the good deed be completed?
